Great book. My 4th grade daughter who is a struggling reader was able to read it on her own because the text is not too difficult, but still found the stories really interesting. My 1st grade daughter who is an advanced reader also really liked them - and I enjoyed reading a few of the chapters to her.

For anyone who has loved the "Little House" books, but maybe has a child who is not ready to read that much text yet, this book has all the excitement of the stories in an easier to read format. I purchased this book and hope to get a class set to read with second graders who are becoming fluent readers, but may not be willing to invest the time to read the thicker books until later. I plan on using it as a book club selection in school. This one has short chapters, each one of the animal stories Laura Ingalls related in some of her other books.

This book was really great. I think that all Laura Ingalls Wilder books are fantastic. I own 6 of my own and I truly love them, but out of all of them I think that this was the best one. Everyone is wonderful and I would suggest this book to anyone.

I loved the book because I like learning about Laura and her dog Jack and that is what it is about. I love reading the book. You should read it too.

My stepdaughter loves her book. Thank you for sending it. It came just in time.
