Eyeshield 21, Volume 9

Synopsis

What does a wimpy kid who's been bullied all his life got to depend on but his own two feet? Sena Kobayakawa is about to start his first year in high school and he's vowed not to get picked on anymore. Unfortunately, the sadistic captain of the football team already has his eye on Sena and his lightning-fast speed. With a wacky cast of characters that includes team captain Hiruma, who has an uncanny resemblance to a demon, and a good-natured front linesman who inexplicably has a head shaped like a chestnut, enjoy all the bone-crushing action and slapstick comedy that manga has to offer. And who knows, maybe you'll get a bit of a heart-warming coming of age story thrown in to boot!

Customer Reviews

I don't really know why this volume in particular was so difficult to find for years, but once I saw it was reprinted I snatched it up. The Eyeshield 21 series as a whole is a great example of the sports manga genre, and indeed I doubt that I will bother reading any others, as the characters and art for this series would be difficult to beat.

This volume finishes the game against the NASA Aliens and details the start of some hardcore training for the Devil Bats. This however is the hardest volume to find as VIZ has refused to make another printing. I lucked out when my gf found it out a garage sale. Great story like always and worth having if you want the full story. Good luck getting your copy =)

Another great addition to my series. The last book I needed. I simply love this author. The story was fantastic and something that should definitely be read. I enjoyed this one so much.
