Devotions For Beginning Readers

Synopsis

Build confidence in young readers as they learn about God's love. Devotions for Beginning Readers will help young readers build confidence in their reading skills as they are learning how to have a relationship with Jesus. Aimed at beginning readers from kindergarten through third grade, each devotional will include colorful illustrations and contain short sentences and scriptures from the International Children's Bible. Also featured is a "today's word" segment, a vocabulary word that will be repeated throughout the devotion to help children develop their reading skills. Each devotion will close with a short prayer that helps children learn how to pray. Short, straightforward sentences and carefully selected words allow for pleasurable reading and easier comprehension. With interactive, engaging, and educational text from bestselling author Crystal Bowman and award-winning producer Christy Lee Taylor, as well as beautiful, vibrant illustrations, this book will become a favorite in your home, Christian school, and church library. Whether reading alone or with a parent, children will build a foundation for language skills and a faith that will last a lifetime. Trim Size: 6 x 8

Customer Reviews

My daughter is just learning how to read, and was given this devotion book for her birthday. I love that it has a special word in a box on the side of the page and then the devotion is centered around that word. The concepts are simple, yet effective and easy to comprehend for early readers. Each devotion ties into the scripture at the bottom of the page. We've been very pleased with this devotion book.

Super cute book! I have a little one who desperately struggles with reading. This is the perfect Devotion for him. He doesn't have to struggle with words that he doesn't understand. I love that there is a word segment that is like having a spelling word that is repeated throughout. Repeating words over and over again is great way to help your child learn that specific word. This book is written by bestselling author Crystal Bowman and award-winning producer Christy Lee Taylor. This book is 240 pages. It is a nice hard back book with beautiful, vibrant illustrations. My 2 year old loves just looking at the bright pictures, while everyone else reads. This would make a great Christmas gift to a child aged 5-8. I would say, that both boys and girls would love this book equally. Devotions for Beginning Readers doesn't just help your child read, it helps them learn to pray. Each devotion ends in a simple prayer for your child to pray. I was sent this book for my children to test and post my honest review. Thank you for reading!

Devotion for children who are just learning to read. What better way to progress in reading than practicing with biblical teachings! Once the child's reading is fluent he or she will be able to read the devotions over and over again independently. Great idea to focus beginning reading material on God!

Amazing devotional! The daily topics are relevant for preschoolers/early elementary kids and are long enough to explain the topic and short enough to not lose the interest of my 3 1/2 yr old. My 5 year old is advanced in reading and loves that she can read her own devotions each day.

I bought this for my daughter in a store and came to to buy one for a gift. I love the story and prayer layout to each day. It gives us lots to talk about each night. It is easy for a young child to relate to. My daughter loves that she can read the entire thing herself.

Do you have an emerging reader? Are you always looking for new ways to present Scripture to your children? Are you looking for a good way to incorporate daily devotions into your kids schedule? If you answered yes to any of those questions then I've got the perfect resource for you! Devotions for Beginning Readers is the perfect fit for your new little reader. It is set up to introduce a new word each day and it uses that word repetitively during the devotion to solidify the knowledge of that word. I will admit that listening to a beginning reader can be a bit taxing. But there is nothing sweeter than hearing the Word of God pouring forth from the mouth of your little one. I think I could listen to that all day, struggles to pronounce or not!! I received a copy of this book to facilitate my review.

My son is in kindergarten and is learning to read so when I saw the "Devotions for Beginning Readers" book by Crystal Bowman and Christy Lee Taylor, I knew it would be perfect for him. The book is beautifully illustrated with very short sentences and simple themes children can easily understand. I love the "today's word" segment featured in each devotional that allows children to learn a new vocabulary word that is repeated through the day's devotion to help children develop their reading skills. I highly recommend this book and hope you will enjoy it with your family! Disclaimer: I was given a copy of this book by the publisher for my honest review. I was in no way compensated to provide a positive review. All opinions expressed are mine alone.

This book is perfect for helping kids establish daily devotional time as well as improve their reading skills. Each page is filled with several short lines that are the perfect length and level for new readers. The wording is simple but the message is clear with a different vocabulary word featured throughout each devotion. Beginning each day's reading with scripture and ending with a prayer, this book is an excellent first devotional for preschool and early elementary children. The straightforward approach combined with fun illustrations will encourage kids to enjoy reading, learning and growing in God's word. If your kids aren't reading yet, it's also a great choice for a short family devotional you can all read through together!
