Errors And Inconsistencies In The Harry Potter Books: An Unofficial Guide

Synopsis

This book is a lighthearted treatment of the various mistakes that J.K. Rowling made in the writing of her famous Harry Potter series. Through her careful analysis of the books, not to mention reading the entire series cover-to-cover over 15 times, Solberg has discovered many interesting and noteworthy inconsistencies in the books, including some that no one else has probably discovered to date. Harry Potter fans will enjoy revisiting many memorable scenes from the books while saying "How did I miss that?" time after time.

Customer Reviews

Not great, not horrible, lots of forum debate fodder. About 40% of this I knew, 40% I disagreed with, and 20% was new to me. Your statistics will vary. I highlighted and made probably a dozen notes. Most of my notes were where I disagreed with a conclusion. Lots of day/date conflicts. I was only really surprised by a handful of the items. A couple of the conflicts sent me back to the books. So while not a great book, it's a fun hour of note taking.
