Customer Reviews

Hard book to get your hand on in the states. It's regular used in British schools who offer the A-Level exams--a little like A.P. exams found in many American high schools. It's a fine collection of (mostly British) short stories. Sometimes you can find it through Barnes and Noble a little bit easier than

The book was well received and on time. same is for my daughter who is 15 and currently in 10th grade. she will be taking the Cambridge International Examinations and same is a must for this purpose. For what I heard the book countains very nice and interesting stories but personally have not read it yet.

Teacher Recommended it and it's helping my daughter.

The best, thanks

It ok
