Customer Reviews

I really loved how this book got into the difficulties with trying to go from English to Amish. Melinda was a believable character, and the romance between her and Steven was very sweet! I also really liked the story line about Melinda's brother escaping the cult (not Amish). Great read! Strong Christian values! Loved it (and I really need to get the other books now)!

Above all else I could say is PLEASE READ SERIES IN ORDER!! I respect the author to flow their stories better as the series continues, she does just that. Looking forward to the final book even in a good HEA is achieved by all.

I enjoyed this book even while hoping for something with a little more insight into the experience of those who marry into an Amish community.
