Customer Reviews

My girls (ages 3 and 6) have been in love with the new Sofia the First Series on Disney Junior since it came out. We were thrilled to see that they were starting to release some storybooks and we pre-ordered this book and several others (The Royal Slumber Party, Sofia Makes a Friend, Welcome to Royal Prep and The Perfect Tea Party) as soon as we could. They have all been big hits in our house. "The Halloween Ball" is the first Halloween story from the Sofia the First series. It is about the King and Queen throwing a Halloween Ball for all of the royal children. The princes and princesses must create their own fancy costume for a costume contest. Sofia happily helps Amber with her peacock costume. She then makes her own fairy costume. When Amber sees Sofia's costume, she gets jealous and tries to make hers better, resulting in a big disaster. When Amber doesn't show up to the costume party, Sofia goes looking for her and ends up sharing her costume with Amber, making them twin sister fairies. There is a great happy ending with a nice message of sharing and helping others. The inside back cover of the book has a fitting "Princess Lesson" that states "A true princess shares what she has with others." Overall, this book has a great story with really nice artwork on high quality glossy paper. It has a nice happy ending and teaches a valuable lesson. It is a longer book that can develop into a more advanced reading book as your child's reading skills develop. It also comes with 25 shiny stickers of all the children in their costumes and other Halloween related decorations. The only negative about the book is that the front cover has a cutout showing one of the stickers and if you peel off that sticker, you have a big blank white space on the cover.
