Customer Reviews

These are nice WORD strips but when I ordered them I read "sentence" strips in the title and thought I was getting the long sentence strips, which is what I wanted. I will keep them. They are good quality but they will indeed only fit a WORD. It was my fault that I didn't pay attention to the dimensions but they really should take the words sentence strip out of their title.

I use these for my word wall in my classroom and they work well. I color code for grade level, and also to categorize words. They are a much better price on than my local teacher supply and since I buy most of my classroom supplies, price is a factor. I stocked up during the promo price offer, but I know I will be back for more.

The lines on these are very different from the ones you buy at a brick and mortar. Some of the cards were printed very dark, others were very light and children have a hard time seeing them when they write their word wall words on them. The colors of the cards are bright and are great.

I bought this for my classroom. It's no different than what you find in the teacher's store. I used this to create vocabulary cards for my word wall. I use a pocket chart to hold the cards. The colors are vibrant and added the appeal I needed for my word wall.

These word strips are excellent! The colors are bright and cheerful without making it hard to read what is written on them. I like that one side has the center dotted writing line and the other has just a bottom line. I opted for these instead of cutting down the longer sentence strips for my daughter's word wall. I prefer the uniform look. They are the perfect size to fit most words and a 2"x2" picture.

Love these strips. The colors are vibrant and call the students attention in my classroom. Very durable high quality product. Great!

I'm a sub and use these as name tags for students (tape a clothes pin to the desk to hold it upright). The bright color, used with a contrasting colored Sharpie, makes names easy to read. Bright colors also encourage the students to cooperate and write their names with a little artistic flourish. Price from this vendor makes these a bargain.

Easy to use in my classroom and easy to store. I bought this to write words for letter of the week . . . worked great.
