charles and lizzie peterson love dogs. their family fosters these young cute furballs. one day on a ski vacation lizzie finds a puppy in need. bear loves to curl up by the fire and sleep all day. but lizzie is positive that he isn't as lazy as he acts. will she be able to find this snowbound pup the perfect family? find out in the puppy place 14 bear.

My family fosters dogs too, and this book was done really good because the author made it sound exactly the way it is in this house (Which means you don't even know it's fictional). Lizzie goes on vacation in Vermont, and finds a little husky puppy who needs a new home! Can she find the perfect home for this lay-by-the-fire all day boy a home? Or is he just too lazy for him to ever take interest in his surroundings? Meeting this adorable Husky pup turns Lizzie's winter vacation into an exciting adventure. Read them

The Peterson's meet Bear while on vacation in Vermont. (I have been there myself and it was awesome) But all he wants to do is sleep! But one day while the Peterson's are out skiing Bear goes missing! Then after awhile they find him. (I'm not going to tell you where though because that would spoil it) Then a few days later Lizzie gets to go on a dogsled ride! But who will adopt this cutie? Will he end up as the Peterson's dog, or will he go to Fern and her dad, (the ones who gave Lizzie the dogsled ride) Find out in Bear!

My son loves all of the Puppy Place books! It's so wonderful to finally find a good, clean series that I feel comfortable letting him read many of them without me proof reading them. Love this author!

I love it I was begging for my mom to get me it I think it is the best book Ellen Miles has made. I think Bear is the cutest puppy ever. I make up my own books too and they are obviously all about puppies. One is called tails of a puppy, Bo, Archie, and a dog's adventure.

Every body thinks that Bear is really lazy but Lizzie has different ideas. She is taking Bear on a walk when a girl rides up on a snow sled. Bear gets over excited when he sees the huskys pulling the sled. They think that he would be a perfect dog for the sled but can they convince the girl's dad to adopt him? If you are thinking about reading it you should!

My daughter loves the Puppy place books. This one is outstanding. We will definitely be ordering more of these books soon. Great selection.

My 10 year old daughter absolutely loves this series. It is a good read, entirely child friendly with good morals.
