After Shoya gets a cell phone he asks Shoko if she does E-mail's, She tells him that she texts her friends from her school. Shoya then asks her if she would like E-mail addresses from the past, Shoko tells Shoya she would like Sahara's, Which was Miyoko, A person who left their school because of being bullied for trying to help Shoko back then. Tomohiro gives Shoya some money so he can take a train to Miyoko's school after Miki told Shoya where she was. So Shoya and Shoko ride together alone on the train and during the trip he doesn't know what to say to her, After Shoya falls asleep, His cell phone rings and the first message says "Are You Tired", Then the second message says "It made me happy that you tried to find out where Miyoko was", The next one said, "Thanks for helping out my sister when she ran away", The final message was "Thank you for helping my sister find me when i was looking for her. Shoya looks at Shoko and knows she's the one who wrote all those messages. After arriving they find out Miyoko just left her school so now Shoya and Shoko go back on the train. Shoya wants to ask Shoko all kinds of questions but he just can't do it. The next day shoya oversleeps and tries to catch a train to school, While the train's completely packed he notices a tall girl in front of him, She then turns around and knows it's him,

When the train comes to a fast stop they both fall to the floor hard and Shoya finds out that it's Miyoko. Shoya tells her that Shoko would like to talk to her because she feels guilty about her leaving the school back then, Shoya does get both of them back together. Miyoko's even taller than Shoya. Shoya knows he cheated both of them out of a childhood of friendship back then but now they talk and laugh which was good to see.
