Customer Reviews

Billy Graham is one of my heroes. My number one hero. With that said, the book is interesting but the writer does not do Dr. Graham justice. I don't regret buying it and recommend it for anyone wanting to know more about a American Icon.

My thoughts: This is a biography of the life and ministry of Billy Graham. It has a few pictures throughout. I thought it was a good overview of the life of this man who has touched many lives for Christ. I learned some things about him as well about his life as a boy, his marriage and children, and his crusades. He formed relationships with people throughout his life and these helped in later in life. It was amazing to read about the many famous people he has been able to reach. It is considered juvenile nonfiction. This book was provided to me for my review from the publisher. Thank you.

When I ordered the item it was under the category of "new". When it arrived it was extremely obvious that it was a "used" book. The packaging was more than sufficient, thick cardboard with bubble wrap around the entire book, but the cover had a piece missing, was wrinkled on the spine, and the pages were definitely not in new condition. Very disappointed and will not order from this company again!
